

Five Years Integrated Programme in Social Sciences

(B.A. Honours + M.A.)

Programme Outcomes

After graduating from this programme a student will be able to

1. Express and articulate his/her understanding regarding the social reality and problems of the region, nation as well as the world.
2. Engage with issues of relevance to the society and ground these in a theoretical framework.
3. Exhibit the qualities and capabilities of a sentient, discerning, responsive and responsible citizen of the country.