

PU-ISSER, PANJAB UNIVERSITY, CHANDIGARH

Institute of Social Science Education and Research (ISSER), Panjab University celebrated 77 th independence day , wherein students of the department participated enthusiastically in various activities .

Prof Seema Vinayak , the coordinator, inspired students to celebrate glorious past and brighter future. Faculty members highlighted the progress and development of India. Students actively showcased their dance and singing talents and were also felicitated for participating in an online inter-department essay writing competition. The program concluded with singing of the national anthem.

Coordinator

PU-ISSER